The Golden Log

Presented by the CLASS OF 1959
DIGHTON HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

THE $64,000 QUESTION

Have you prepared yourself for life? During the past four years you have built a foundation for life. This foundation must stand the rigors of changing times. The diploma you have earned will provide greater earning power and open the doors into futures with abundant opportunities.

The labors of the past are soon forgotten in anticipation for the future. Make this future an inspiring one for yourself and others. Practice what you have learned, add it to your new experiences, and never stop in your climb upward toward success.

The world will be a better place to live in, if the citizenship you have learned is put in practice. Be a vital part of the American scene as you travel along the road of life. Leave a mark for others to reach so that the world may say the Class of 1959 had the answer to the $64,000 question.

I think you have it now, put it in practice!!

Editors' Message

Within these pages we have tried to record the many memorable events that have happened to us during our journey through high school.

We hope that, not only at the present but in the years to come, The GOLDEN LOG of 1959 will be a treasured keepsake and that it will recall many happy occasions. May you remember and cherish the challenges, accomplishments, and above all, the friends at Dighton High.

Our

A.M. Looks like a good day.

The pause that refreshes.

Catching up on the latest.

Hoping we make ends meet.

School

P.M. Hurry, hurry, I want to get home!

Starring Peter, the yoyo "champion."

We never pass up a chance for fun.

Always on time for eats.

Dedication

Mr. Dowd, you have understood our problems, assisted us with patience of steel, listened to our complaints with an admirable smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened, and enhanced our chance for success.

Your determined effort to make us satisfied and happy shall always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories. We want you to know that you have our respect, admiration, sincere gratitude, and our wish for success in your new principalship.

In dedicating our yearbook to you, we want to say "Thank you, Mr. Dowd!"

Appreciation

The beginning of our Junior year found us with a new advisor, Mr. Robert McGuirk. He has taken to heart our problems, both personal and academic, and with endless energy and wise counsel has advanced us toward our goal. To him we express our sincere thanks for his guidance and untiring efforts.

We first met Mrs.. Helena Kennedy in our Freshman year. She helped us with our many problems and continued with us until the end of our Sophomore year. Her pleasant personality and sound advice will be remembered throughout the years. A mere "thank you" seems hardly sufficient for all she has done for us.

Success is getting what you want, happiness is wanting what you get.

May you all have a successful and prosperous future.

ROBERT T. ROY

Superintendent of schools

I congratulate you on the significant occasion of your graduation. Your commencement marks an important point in your life. You will discover that life is a crucible which will require courage and determination if you are to attain your goal. It will contain not only successes but also disappointments. Enjoy the former; do not be discouraged by the latter, remembering that anything worthwhile necessitates perseverance. May your plans materialize. Be loyal to your parents, and your country. Your teachers and I are proud of you. It is our fervent wish that you will be exceedingly successful in all those activities which will be endemic to your station in later life.

Class Prophecy

It was the year 1969; we, Danielle Desautels, Lenora Korlacki, and Ralph Leach, were sitting in Radio City Music Hall when we saw Leonard Reed conducting a television show, the Great Giveaway. He was announcing the first contestant. When what to our wondering eyes should appear but our old class advisor, Mr. McGuirk.

Having answered the first three questions on the Reformation correctly, he was about to answer the last, when he said the secret word "Quiet." After the audience quieted, we heard the announcer say that Mr. McGuirk had just won a trip around the world in order to visit his class of 1959.

On the way to the airport, he was so excited that he just didn't see that stop sign and, as a result, he met his second student, who was Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Peter Simmons. But after a stern lecture on the violation, Pete said that he hoped his voyage would be a safe and enjoyable one.

Before leaving, we all went to the airport to bid him bon voyage. In the crowd at the terminal we saw two familiar faces, the old maids Sandra LeForrest and Judith Mason. We also saw the pilot and co-pilot coming across the field. They were none other than captains Kenneth Rubadou and Richard Read.

Sitting behind Mr. McGuirk were two more familiar faces, Marilyn Hathaway and Judith Harris. They told him they had just finished an engagement at the Little Theater as chorus girls. Their manager was Lawrence Bristol, who has a total of 100 chorus girls working for him. At the rear of the plane was Deanna Korlacki occupying herself with a Cystic Fibrosis Pamphlet. She had just received a scholarship for successful work in the field of the mentally retarded, her patients being none other than the famous president of the I.O.U. Loan Agency, James MacDonald, and Joseph Fernandes, president of Fernandes Finance Company.

Upon reaching gay Paris, Mr. McGuirk left the plane and proceeded to the boarding house of Marjorie Jack, MaryLou Benevides, and Harriet Bulotsky. Across the street were the shops of Marie Cimino and Wendell Carr. Marie's Bakery Shop was the best in town and Wendell's Beauty Salon was filled with customers. One of these was John Torres getting the full treatment, a manicure and the latest hair style.

For lunch Mr. McGuirk stopped at Bragga's Restaurant where only selected clientele are served. Who do you suppose was the head waiter? Yes, you guessed it, the tidiest and most courteous boy of Mr. McGuirk's class, John Brown. His smile and pleasing manner, we think, surprised Mr. McGuirk.

After he was seated in the best location he noticed an old R.C.A.-Victor buddy, Albert Gramm. He was explaining to Miss Shirley Cummings that her position as consultant would only be available as long as her voice could be audible on tape.

After dinner and a soothing cigar, he contemplated his next stop in Venice. There, perhaps, he would see Dennis Nagle building big ships in big bottles for the Naval Academy Toy Company. This pleasant thought was interrupted when he was tapped on the shoulder. It was our little Joseph Menard, but he wasn't so little now. At 6'3" he weighed 202 pounds. He was on a business trip to Paris working for Cambra Baby Food. The president was in the hospital in Chicago having her eighth baby. Helena's only wish was that it not be another boy of whom she now had seven. After this enjoyable evening he went back to the boarding house to prepare for his early plane to Venice.

Our advisor was greeted at the airport by the mayor of Venice, who turned out to be Paul Pysz. He was also greeted by Venice's most prominent fashion expert, editor of Tall Men's Fashion Guide, Cynthia Broadbent.

From Venice he traveled to Rome where he stopped at the University of Rome. Here he was to meet Ronald Boyce, who was then the Freshman girls' advisor. They had a dinner engagement and talked about old times. They talked about Helen Craven who had recently been ordained as a Methodist minister.

Mr. McGuirk left Rome to travel to Istanbul, Turkey. He arrived at the station and was driven to the Hotel White Pine by William Donle. The managers were Ronald Pine and Stuart White.

Miss Grace Haskell had sent an invitation to our advisor to attend her engagement party. She was to marry a prominent Turkish businessman. She had with her, her sister from the King's Dude Ranch in Colorado. Helen Haskell was the foreman of this estate. In the crowd extending Grace best wishes was the spinster, Deborah Hopkins.

Mr. McGuirk's plane left at sunrise on its way to Hawaii. Upon reaching Honolulu, his attitude towards scenery changed. Just outside the airport he saw the three familiar faces of Carolyn Pina, Edna Wordell and Virginia Pratt. Upon a second glance, he noticed the marvelously masculine figure of Paul Martin, the dashing life guard. Beside Paul stood his assistant, Arnold Jose. After a long chase around the world, which finally ended in Honolulu, Evelyn Furtado, Barbara Medeiros, and Marilyn Rose succeeded in hooking their men and had a triple wedding to which Mr. McGuirk was invited.

Continuing his flight, his next to the last stop was Hollywood, California. Zooming past him in a 1970 Firebird 8 was Wallace Gonsalves, Hollywood's number one play boy. Sitting next to Wally was the charming and gracious Linda Walker, who was the proprietor of her own kindergarten school.

Miriam Linden, driving her 1947 Chevy, had just taken three weeks to get to California. As she noticed Mr. McGuirk, she turned away and ran into the fender of a new Fiat. She learned that the driver of this car was William Rasmussen. Bill was taken to The Durwood Mosher Hospital and nursed back to health by Diane Wilson and Sheila Rogers.

On the last day of the trip, he went to see the Hotshots vs. the Hollywood Hornets basketball game. The managers were Barbara Sullivan and Jannette Mosher.

On the trip back to DIGHTON, he took a train. As he got off the train he was welcomed by Eliott Spinney and his Satellites. The Bittner & Brown Cab was waiting to take him home at last. He reached home tired, but secure and content that his class, the Class of 1959, were all healthy, happy, and prosperous.

Class History

"Dear Diary"

September, 1955—Well, here we are. After eight years we were finally entering the doors of Dighton High School. We were green and confused, but with the aid of our advisor, Mrs. Kennedy, we were soon on our way . . . Our first task was the election of class officers. We chose as President, Paul Martin; Vice President, Ronnie Pine; Secretary, Ronnie Lee; and Treasurer, John Gray.

October, 1955—After a long month of waiting, football season finally arrived. The cheers of the freshman class were loud and clear for Pete Simmons, Paul Martin, Jackie Torres, Ken Rubadou, and Frances Pina—our contributions to the squad. To lead the band were our majorettes, Judy Mason, Edna Wordell, and Helen Marques.

November, 1955—Our first football dance "The Lion's Roar" was a great success. This started our treasury to grow and with the help of the magazine drive and our high salesman, Jack Torres, we were well on our way.

December, 1955—Another election! This time for Student Council. Representing our class on the legislative body of the school were Paul Martin, Sheila Rogers, Arnold Jose, and Judy Harris . . . Vacation at last! A two week rest with no confusion or homework.

January, 1956—Here we are all rested up, and feeling more sure of ourselves. Dighton High was beginning to feel like home. Buzz! Buzz! the end of the period, no books to grab this time—it's basketball season! Adding to the excitement of the games were Ronnie Boyce, Jack Torres, Pete Simmons, Jim Sylveira, Paul Martin, and Elliott Spinney from the class of '59. Lynn Hathaway, Jan Mosher, Judy Harris, Judy Mason, and Edie Leonard participated in the girls' basketball team.

February, 1956—Our first formal—the Mardi Gras! Riding our winning float "White Spirit" were Edie Leonard and Ken Rubadou.

March, 1956—Another Wonder Quiz: Lynn Hathaway, Preston King, Barb Sullivan, and Judy Harris participated making it a winning year.

April, 1956—One, two, three strikes, you're out! A familiar phrase these days as baseball season is again underway at D.H.S. Our representatives were Pete Simmons, Jack Torres, Elliott Spinney, Jim Silveira, Ronnie Boyce, Stew White, Bill Donle, Ken Rubadou, and Al Gramm . . . Play contest—Ghost Hunters although not successful, the dramatic club with the aid of Mr. Ponte put a lot of work into the play and we all looked forward to a victory next year.

May, 1956—Another big night—the Junior Prom . . . Only one more month of "acute freshmanitus."

June, 1956—A great way to end a great year—our class trip to College Pond.

"Dear Diary"

September, 1956—We're back again! No longer the green and starry-eyed frosh that entered D.H.S. a year ago. We are off again with our capable advisor, Mrs. Kennedy, and slate of officers—President, Judy Harris; Vice President, Ralph Leach; Secretary, Debbie Hopkins; and Treasurer, Ronnie Lee.

October, 1956—End-center-tackle-guard—get your man and hit him hard! That's the yell heard at D.H.S. now with football season here again. Representing us on the cheering squad was Lynn Hathaway rooting for our new contribution John Brown, along with last year's players.

November, 1956 — Our football dance — another goal reached by our class. We were watching the treasury grow and the magazine drive with Helen Craven as our high salesman added a little more to the fund.

December, 1956—Stars-Stars-Stars. "Christmas Stardust" the theme for our own Christmas Dance. Such fun as we sponsored our first big dance. With Barb Sullivan and Lynn Hathaway as chairmen it was a big success.

January, 1957—The Christmas vacation was over and basketball season was well on its way. Brian Corr and John Brown displayed their talents as they made their first appearance on the basketball team. The girls' basketball team brought out five of our other girls—Barb Sullivan, Marie Cimino, Helen Haskell, Shirl Cummings, and Helena Cambra.

February, 1957—Mardi Gras time! "Mardi Gras Masquerade" sets the theme for our winning float "China Moon." Our attendants this year were Edna Wordell and John Brown.

March, 1957—Elected from our class to represent our school were Judy Harris, Sheila Rogers, and Lynn Hathaway as Student Council members.

April, 1957—"Take Me Out to the Ballgame." There were no additions to the baseball team this year . . . Love Hits Wilbur a howling success. Our first play contest victory under the direction of Mr. Ponte.

May, 1957—Class rings chosen—What a commotion. With a student body vote we finally won "blue stones." Adding this event to the Junior Prom, May was a very gay month.

June, 1957—Our class trip to Fearings Pond is the end of another wonderful year at D.H.S.

"Dear Diary"

September, 1957—Upperclassmen at last. What a fabulous feeling. With Mr. McGuirk as our new class advisor, and our new class officers: President, Judy Harris; Vice President, Paul Martin; Secretary, Helen Craven; and Treasurer, Debbie Hopkins; we were off to another fine year at D.H.S.

October, 1957—"Dighton's got the team that's on the beam." That's the cheer heard from the four junior cheerleaders: Lynn Hathaway, Barb Sullivan, Sandy LeForrest, and Edie Leonard, and were we proud to have Judy Mason as head leader of the majorettes. On the football team from the class of '59 were Paul Martin, John Brown, Ken Rubadou, and Pete Simmons.

November, 1957—A month of excitement, our football dance, our beautiful "blue stoned" class rings arrived, and the excursion to Nantucket.

December, 1957—Schemes to raise the treasury; the bottle drive sure did a good job helping out the fund . . We sure are ready for the Christmas vacation.

January, 1958—"Dighton will shine tonight" was being sung frequently as the basketball season rolled along. Our five representatives on the squad were Ronnie Boyce, Jack Torres, Pete Simmons, John Brown, and Jimmy MacDonald. Ralph Leach was timer. We supplied three more people to this year's girls' basketball team—Le and De Korlacki and assistant manager, Miriam Linden.

February, 1958—"Carnival en Rose" the Mardi Gras. With Irene Perry and Pete Simmons in the Queen's Court, it was a wonderful evening.

March, 1958—We had our annual election for Student Council members. They were Judy Harris, Sheila Rogers, Helen Craven, and John Brown . . . Another big event was the choosing of Honor Society members. Bill Donle, Ralph Leach, Wally Gonsalves, Le Korlacki, De Korlacki, Debbie Hopkins, Lynn Hathaway, Judy Harris, Helen Craven, and Shirl Cummings became the delegates.

April, 1958—Another baseball season is here. Participating in this sport from our class were Jack Torres, Pete Simmons, Ronnie Boyce, Elliott Spinney, Jimmy MacDonald, and Bill Donle . . . For the play contest we put on Change Partners. Although we were defeated there was the big hope of being victorious as seniors.

May, 1958—"The Junior Prom." How lucky we were to sponsor this successful dance. Our theme "End of the Rainbow" brought many thrills as we planned this big affair with the aid of Judy Harris, the chairman.

June, 1958 — "Daisies, Daisies, Daisies, will we have enough?" This class day was a big event as we have Judy Harris accepting the Chase History Award, Danny Desautels the French Award, and Lynn Hathaway and Judy Harris, the D.A.R. History Award . . . Ending this year at Lake Mishnock we all certainly looked forward to our last year.

"Dear Diary"

September, 1958—Seniors at last! With the thoughts of our Washington trip and graduation, it was hard to believe this year would come to an end . . . We chose Judy Harris to lead, Ralph Leach to aid, Helen Craven to note our activities, and as our money raiser Debbie Hopkins. Mr. McGuirk was again our advisor.

October, 1958—Our fine captains during football season were Pete Simmons, John Brown, and Paul Martin. Lynn Hathaway, head cheerleader, and Edna Wordell, head majorette.

November, 1958—Our final football dance—another wonderful success . . . The Nantucket game put an end to the high school careers of our players, Pete Simmons, Paul Martin, John Brown, Ken Rubadou, and Jack Torres, also ending the splendid performance our cheerleaders, Lynn Hathaway, Barb Sullivan, and Edie Leonard and our majorettes, Edna Wordell and Judy Mason.

December, 1958—Awards, Awards, Awards; big honors for Helen Craven, the D.A.R. good citizen; Ralph Leach, Student Government Day representative: Elliott Spinney, high "ad" salesman; Diane Wilson and Shirl Cummings, top Christmas card salesmen; and Barb Sullivan, Future Homemaker of Tomorrow. At the annual football banquet the boys were awarded their sweaters and the girls their letters . . . Student Council elections put Judy Harris, Edna Wordell, and Paul Martin in as our senior members . . . Vacation and rest—Whew! We needed it.

January, 1959—We came back and saw our basketball team fighting for the Narry League top position. We all agreed we had a fine team.

February, 1959 — "Mardi Gras" time. The Valentine Ball with the Sweethearts of 1959, De Korlacki and Pete Simmons . . . Our hoop team finished up third in the Narry League and ending a marvelous season at the Tech Tourney were our co-captains, Ronnie Boyce and Jack Torres, also John Brown and Pete Simmons and Ralph Leach, timer . . . Washington, here we come—and what a wonderful time we had. A trip we will never forget!

March, 1959—Yearbook deadlines—Rush, Rush! Rush! Will we ever make it???

April, 1959—Looking forward to another winning season are our six baseball players: Elliott Spinney, Bill Donle, Jim MacDonald, Pete Simmons, Jack Torres, and Ronnie Boyce. We are all looking forward to another victory in the play contest too.

May, 1959—Ending their season at the annual banquet will be our ten girls of the basketball team, De Korlacki, and Jan Mosher, Co-Captains, Barb Sullivan, Judy Mason, Lynn Hathaway, Judy Harris, Helena Cambra, Helen Haskell, and Marie Cimino. Also, Miriam Linden the manager . . . Junior Prom time. A grand time is looked forward to by everyone.

June, 1959—Can it really be June? June 11, our graduation. These past years have flown so fast. The friends we made and the times we have had will always be remembered by the class of 1959.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1959, supposedly so well provided with all the necessary worldly possessions together with intellectual attainment far beyond the ordinary, and with comparatively sound minds and bodies, do will, devise and bequeath the following residue from our vast over supply:

To Dighton High School we leave any remains of the building, books, or appurtenances which we haven't entirely devastated.

To relieve the monotonous life of the faculty, we leave to them the noisy chatter and cacophany of the present Junior class to replace our faultless decorum and our silence and placidity.

To Mr. McGuirk we leave 5 pounds of bird seed and a bird book in order that he may pursue his ornithological studies during the summer.

To the Juniors we devise the distinction of being the "ultima classis" to graduate from Dighton High School and on them we place the duty of relieving the faculty's boredom by their not trivial abilities in this area.

We leave to Mr. Delaney and his Sophomore class the privilege of christening the new regional school and launching it on its maiden voyage on the educational seas.

To the Freshmen we open the doors to wider fields of social endeavor where new faces and new personalities will doubtless be a spur to their amorous efforts.

Danny Desautels leaves her ability to speak French, complete with accent and gestures, to Louis Benevides.

Helena Cambra bequeaths her immaculate appearance to Carol Terra.

Marie Cimino passes on her mischievous ideas to Carolyn Melesky as suggestions for future escapades.

Cindy Broadbent gives her carefully arranged 9:10 A.M. pass schedule to Janet Bilodeau and advises her that the clocks in the shop and the High School are meticulously synchronized.

Shirley Cummings bequeaths her title of most talkative to the winner of a contest held between the members of the Berkley Trio. Mr. Hathaway will officiate as judge.

Bill Donle leaves his "sang froid" to Roger Duarte.

Jack Torres passes on his ability to shoot from outside to Mr. Delaney who practices assiduously but certainly needs some help.

Marilyn Rose and Evelyn Furtado pass on their interchangeability of names to Sandra Smith and Sandra Simmons.

Wally Gonsalves leaves his very strenuous job at the Harodite to Richard Levinson.

Al Gramm bequeaths his ability to improve on the act of terpsichory to his sister.

Judy Harris passes on the Senior Class president's gavel to Dave Perry with the hope that he will crack the appropriate pates.

Grace Haskell leaves her "pixie" hair cut to Barbara Willette, not that she needs it.

De Korlacki leaves her weird laugh to echo in the halls of Dighton High.

Lynn Hathaway wills her position as head cheerleader to a girl with the necessary pep, enthusiasm, and leadership.

Debbie Hopkins bequeaths her fifty-one Ford to her brother Bob, she hopes she'll get a new one.

Durwood "two gun" Mosher leaves his sure shot water pistol to Ernie Atwood.

Le Korlacki bequeaths her ability to spring herself from the clink to Susan Carey.

Ralph Leach leaves his "bomb" of a car to Dave Borden. Lucky Dave???

Harriet Bulotsky and Mary Lou Benevides leave the fun of dating Aggie School boys to Joanne Ashworth and Carolyn Dow.

Helen Craven wills her ability to work out physics problems to Jean Atwood.

Joe Fernandes bequeaths his winning personality to anyone who can use it.

Helen Haskell leaves her lack of interest in boys to Jackie Carvalho.

Joe Menard wills his ability to irk teachers to Helen Briggs (What a switch).

Edna Wordell leaves her majorette strut to next year's head majorette.

Diane Wilson passes on her ability to be asked to leave shop lunch to Sandy Simmons.

Richard Read bequeaths his "jazzy" shirt to Michael Hurwitz.

Ronald Pine leaves his ability to stay awake in English class to Jim Silveira.

Stewart White leaves his quiet?? ways to Charlie Mosher.

Dennis Nagle leaves his No-Doz pills to anyone who forgets about reports until the night before.

Elliott Spinney wills his crew cut to Carl Stonstrom.

Pete Simmons passes on his dashing pursuit of the girls to Eddie Sylvester.

Ken Rubadou will his height to Billy O'Connell.

Sandy LeForrest leaves her walk to Doris Linden even though she has one all her own.

Jimmy MacDonald wills his detention seat to Mike Hurwitz.

Barbara Medeiros, Jannette Mosher, and Marjorie Jack leave the thrill of being engaged to all the girls in D.H.S. who fall in love.

Carol Pina leaves her controlled emotions to John Smith.

Miriam Linden passes on her forgetfulness to Pam Smith. If she remembers.

Barbara Sullivan bequeaths her P.O.D. "arguments" with Mr. Vitale to Nancy Synan.

Sheila Rogers passes on her attraction for Bridgewater boys to her sister Jean.

Leonard Reed leaves his ability to get along with Mr. O'Connell to Leo Bilodeau.

Lawrence Bristol passes on his flirtatious ways to Herbie Atwood.

Wendell Carr leaves 5th period study to anyone who wants to lose library privileges.

Virginia Pratt wills her position as cashier during Shop Lunch to some lucky Junior girl.

Ronnie Boyce leaves his gregarious nature to Kenny Perry.

Judy Mason wills her ability to get out of trouble to Penny Webster. Good luck, Penny.

Robert Brown leaves his talent for getting on the right side of Mr. Day to George Lavigne.

Tom Bittner leaves his talkative??? ways to Tony Martin.

Bill Rasmussen wills his shop talents to Julie Souza.

Johnny Brown passes on his ability to sweep the girls off their feet to Jimmie Roberts.

Richie Bragga leaves his build to Billy Roy.

Spike Jose wills his desk in Room 21 to Napolean Alves.

Paul Martin bequeaths his position as tackle on the football team to his cousin Danny.

Paul Pysz leaves his car to anyone who can keep it together.

Linda Walker wills her graceful manner to Bill Wheeler.

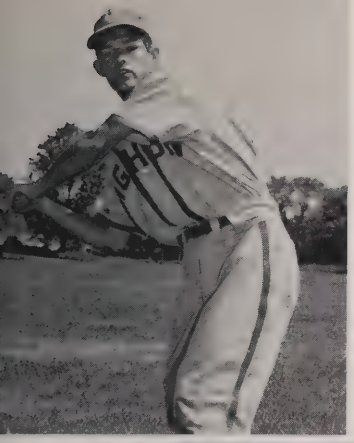
VARSITY COACH SCANLON

J.V. COACH DIAS



The Dighton High School baseball team started the 1957 season off with an impressive 24-3 victory at the hands of Westport. This was the first of nine victories as opposed to five losses.

Highlights of the 1958 season were a double victory over Somerset and single victories over Case and Diman.

The Scanlon coached Lions ended the Narry Baseball season in a tie for second place with Case behind first place Dartmouth.

The Dighton High School football team had a very successful season in 1958 winning four and losing three. The bulk of Dighton's scoring was done by Peter Simmons, who ranked fifth in scoring in the state with 118 points.

One of the highlights of the season was the Yarmouth game. At the half Dighton was behind 22-6. Dighton then rallied for 32 points in the last half for a 38-22 victory. This strong comeback was a repetition of the 1958 season. Dighton had lost 3 of its first four games before coming up with three straight hard earned victories. The Yarmouth game was an example of the overwhelming fight and spirit showed by the entire team throughout the season.

Interesting?

Where's the life guard.

Get Geritol.

The big boppa.

All by myself.

Getting to know you.

Headin' for the hills.

Look at the birdie.

Scene of the crime.

Will they survive?

'Til we meet again.

Taste good?

Mrs. Smith, we, the Class of 1959, can't thank you enough for all the hard work, effort, and never-ending guidance you have given us as advisor for our yearbook.

The members of the Class of 1959 wish to express our thanks to our associate homeroom teacher, Mrs. Cermak, for the help she has given us in the past year.

Appreciation

The Class of 1959, The Yearbook Staff, and Editors wish to thank our advertisers for their kind contributions. It is only through their generosity that the publishing of our yearbook is made possible. We hope that the readers will in turn aid these contributors to our book by patronizing them.

What is the most powerful advertising force in existence?
Answer: THE DAILY NEWSPAPER.
Nearly everyone reads a newspaper every day—so it follows that practically any product sold will be sold to a newspaper reader. Hence the newspaper is basic and the effective use of its advertising columns constitutes the most powerful and profitable advertising force in existence. And that's why so many advertisers use it day after day. Newspapers are the answer to your advertising needs.
